Tasting notes

Notes of vanilla, raspberry, chocolate and some blackberry. Smell of vanilla, red fruit and black fruit on the nose. Cleansing nosefeel. Rich and lively mouthfeel. Good acidity and soft tannins. Pairs great with venison and can be drank alone. Pleasurable and easy to drink.

About the wine

This easy-drinking red comes from vineyards north of Orange in the southern Rhône, on clay-limestone soils with deliberately small yields. Because the blend includes Merlot, which Rhône appellations do not allow, it is bottled as a simple Vin de France. André Brunel is best known for Domaine Les Cailloux in Châteauneuf-du-Pape.
