Tasting notes

Appearance: Bright ruby red. Nose: Dark cherry, wild berries, black pepper, and a hint of coffee. Palate: Ripe fruit flavors, smooth tannins, and balanced acidity. Finish: Lasting finish with fruit and subtle oak spice.

About the wine

Torre d'Orti lies at Marcellise in the hills east of Verona, on red soils streaked with white chalk. The grapes are picked by hand, destemmed and fermented in steel, with slightly overripe Merlot added for softness before a spell in oak. The estate, founded in 2000 by the Piona family, is named after the old watchtower of Montorio Castle.

Winemaking

MATURATION	10-12 months in large oak casks and small French oak barrels.
