Tasting notes

Pronounced but smoothed tannins and a perfectly balanced acidity. It has an explosion of aromas and tastes with a gust of black currant and ripe cherry at its core, surrounded by notes of roasted coffee, tobacco, and spices, long finish with hints of dried red fruits, bitter chocolate and smoked wood.

About the wine

The grapes come from Chateau Vartely's vineyards in Valul lui Traian, in southern Moldova, from the 2017 harvest. The wine was then aged for 30 months in oak barrels, building its coffee, tobacco and spice notes. The Taraboste name recalls the tarabostes, the noble class of the ancient Dacians who lived in this part of Europe.
